

Mr. Cooper's Study Guide
Semester 1 World History Final

GREEK, ROMAN, RENAISSANCE & ENLIGHTENMENT THOUGHT: Chapters 1.1 (pg. 5-11) 1.3-1.4
(Pg. 18-29)

Aristocracy	Divine Right
Monarchy	Enlightenment
Democracy	Direct Democracy
Republic	Magna Carta
Dictator

- What are the differences between the forms of government?
- What did Enlightenment philosophers believe about the government?

FRENCH REVOLUTION: chapter 7.1-7.5 (pg217-241)

Estates (First, Second, and Third)	Storming of the Bastille	Napoleonic code
Louis XVI	Declaration of the Rights of Man	Congress of Vienna
Marie Antoinette	Maximilien Robespierre	Coup d'état
Estates-General	Reign of Terror
Tennis Court Oath	Napoleon Bonaparte
March on Versailles	Nationalism

- Why was the meeting of the Estates-General called?
- What were three major causes of the French Revolution?
- What classes of people belonged to each estate?
- What did each estate pay in taxes?
- What happened at the major events during the French Revolution?
- How and what stage of the Revolution did Napoleon come to power?
- Why was Napoleon unable to conquer Britain?

INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION: chapter 9.1-9.4 (pg. 283-307), 10.4 (pg. 328)

Laissez faire	Crop rotation	Middle Class	Water Power
Urbanization	Karl Marx	Free-market	Steam Power
Entrepreneur	Adam Smith	Socialism	Agricultural Rev.
Enclosure	Textiles	Industrialization

- How did the agricultural revolution lead to the industrial revolution?
- Where and why did the industrial revolution begin?
- What were some of the new inventions that revolutionized industries?
- What types of problems came with overpopulation and urbanization?
- How did the industrial revolution impact society?
- How did the industrial revolution change the way people lived and the type of work that they practiced?
- What industry was the first affected by the new technology during the industrial revolution?
- How did people generate power to operate the machines of the industrial revolution?
- How did transportation change/improve during the time period?
- Who were Karl Marx and Adam Smith and what economic systems are they associated with?